Message from Pastor Lily

The season of Lent can be hard for people. We are awaiting the death of our savior, so naturally there can be much weight during this time. We are reminded of Christ's impending death along with our own. On the flipside we are reminded that God is always near and death isn't the end. The end of this season is the beginning of the next, which happens to be Easter!

This year we are walking through Lent as it is a journey. I enjoy using travel language when talking about faith and seasons of the church. It helps me with the passing of time and growth that comes with it. This Lent our focuses are: Walk in Christ's Light, Walk in The Shoes of Another, Walk With Less, Walk Towards More, and Walk One Another Home.

In the words of an old hymn I remember singing in my little rural church while growing up, "Come home, come home! You who are weary, come home." Earnestly, tenderly, Jesus is calling, calling "O sinner, come home!" Softly and Tenderly Jesus is Calling, ELW 608. There sure is something about home and the ability to have one to return to. We are called to make a place for everyone in our churches, in our hearts and in the kingdom. And in this life we are meant to walk arm in arm and hand in hand making sure no one walks alone. Embrace this Lenten Season and let yourself feel all that comes up for you during this time. Feeling reminds us that we are alive.
